Whereas the Truth and Reconciliation Commission released its final report on June 2, 2015 which included 94 calls to Action to redress the legacy of residential schools and advance the process of Canadian reconciliation; and

Whereas the recent discoveries of remains and unmarked graves across Canada have led to increased calls for all levels of government of address the recommendations in the TRC's Calls to Action; and

Whereas all Canadians and all orders of government have a role to play in reconciliation; and

Whereas Recommendation #80 of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission called upon the federal government, in collaboration with Aboriginal peoples, to establish, as a statutory holiday, a National Day for Truth and Reconciliation to ensure that public commemoration of the history and legacy of residential schools remains a vital component of the reconciliation process; and

Whereas the Federal Government has announced September 30th, 2021 as the first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (National Orange Shirt Day) and a statutory holiday;

Therefore be it resolved that the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Dubreuilville does hereby commit to recognizing September 30th, 2021, as the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (National Orange Shirt Day) by sharing the stories of residential school survivors, their families and communities.
