12. AJOURNEMENT
ADJOURNMENT

Good day,

I am reaching out to you as the Advisor for Zones 1 and 1A on behalf of the Inspectorate of Policing. Now that the municipal elections have been completed, your Police Service Board membership may have changed. There are many things to consider.

- The current composition of your Board remains intact until the Council(s) make new appointments, up to six months. This applies to both elected appointees and community members.
- Provincial appointees are not impacted by the municipal election and remain until their appointment expires
- I am aware that many Detachment Boards still have vacancies, and I continue to raise this issue within the Inspectorate.
- All new appointees must complete the Roles and Responsibilities training before taking their seat at the Board table.
- All new appointees will have six months to complete the Thematic Training.
- I recommend that appointees take screenshots of their training completion to ensure they have proof of completion.
- New Appointees can contact the Ontario Police College to register

  OPC.Registrar@ontario.ca

- Once all appointments have been completed, please send me a list of your entire board membership
  - Board member name
  - Board member position (community, elected council or mayor, provincial)
  - Email address of member
  - Phone number of member
  - Contact information for the Board Administrator

- As a reminder, the Community Safety and Policing Act requires Detachment Boards to meet at least four times per calendar year. Municipalities must ensure this occurs.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact me

Respectfully

Ron LeClair
